SCUBA DIVING GENERAL CONDITIONS
Best Season	All year round divided in 2 seasons June to November: south-west monsoon; more plankton in the water, manta season, visibility 10 to 15 meters December, January: in-between two seasons, waters starts to get clear, wind are generally from north-east February to April: north-east monsoon, visibility 20 to 30 meters. Great drift dives especially in the channels where we can observe schools of eagle rays, many sharks and pelagic due to the great visibility
Dives Club Med Finolhu Villas	Boat Dives: morning/afternoon/night drift dives, less effort and very enjoyable Outside Reefs: long reefs ideal for all levels of divers, top reef 7-8 meters and sloping down to a sandy bottom of 30 - 35 meters Thilas: small underwater mountains usually close to channels covered with soft corals, overhangs, caves and rich in colourful fish life. Max. depth in Maldives: 30 meters
Highlights	HP REEF: Covered with very colorful soft corals, swim troughs, caves and overhangs. Full of life: from schools of jackfish to nurse sharks. COLOSSEUM: Great drift dive with an ingoing current. We can spot turtles and humphead parrotfish on the way to the channel, with the occasional grey reef shark. LANKAN: Mantas within season (June to November), many white tip reef sharks, turtles, dogtooth tunas, giant trevallies
